Mr. L. M. Suplee,
C/o Security Bank,
Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Dear Suplee:

Thank you for your remittance, for which I enclose receipt. The Books are postpaid at that price.

Even if you "don't know anything about music" yourself, I am sure that if you hear these Songs rightly sung you will enjoy them-- in fact when sung in the right way they are irresistible.

The Book is already in its Third Edition-- which means that I shall get out a Second Book next Fall.

With all good wishes to you for the New Year and always,

Sincerely Yours,

Dear Mr Lummis -

I have been expecting a bill from you for the 2 Books of Songs. Enclosed find $7
Drops by your order for 3⁰⁰. Please acknowledge receipt.
If postage should be added, advise me and I'll send Stamps.

I don't know anything about music.
A friend to whom I sent one of the books writes "The Spanish Songs are interesting and tuneful and humorous.
I think a teacher would enjoy giving them to a class
and explaining the myths in them."

With best wishes

Sincerely yours

Louis M Suplee
